

your rights at work on the road

Following its success in 2005, the Your Rights at Work bus is embarking on a tour visiting the Shoalhaven and hearing first hand the impact of WorkChoices across New South Wales.

Working people in regional NSW and their families are warmly invited to be a part of Your Rights At Work: On The Road 2006.

Commencing in May, the 2006 'On the Road' tour will be holding street stalls, workplace meetings, discussions with civic and religious leaders and evening meetings on how WorkChoices legislation directly affects your community.

Learn how the new laws will affect you, your family and friends; learn what it will do to your community; tell others how it has impacted on you; and learn what you can do about it.
